

Bank of Cultures

LINGUISTIC AND CULTURAL TIME BANK

Have you got spare time?

Would you like to practice a language?

Would you like to meet people from other countries?

What is a Time Bank?

It is a time-sharing network among people for giving, receiving and sharing skills, knowledge and services. There is no money. The currency is time.

How does it work?

People who are part of the Time Bank receive the services they need and offer what they do and what they like, according to their availability.

Why a Bank of Cultures?

- Because it creates community and cross-cultural Links.
 - Because it improves the knowledge of a language.
 - Because it promotes coexistence relationships and trust between people of different cultural backgrounds.
 - Because it allows for the exchange of knowledge and skills from around the world
 - Because it gives personal satisfaction and appreciates ones own abilities and knowledge.

What services can be offered and received in the Bank of Cultures?

- Conversation in different languages.
- Exchange of knowledge and skills from around the world.
- Knowledge about countries and places.

In addition to these services, the Bank of Cultures can propose group activities as:

- Guided Cultural Tours (urban).
- Cultural gatherings.
- Storytelling.
- Classes / workshops cuisines.

Anyone who is part of the Bank of Cultures , interested in sharing any subject or theme can make the proposal.
